Orcas Island Lit Festival 2023

Celebrating its fourth anniversary of bringing world-class literary talent to the San Juan Islands, the Orcas Island Lit Fest (OILF) honors the power of words to educate, entertain, and even change lives. The festival will kick off on Friday night, June 2, with the popular open-to-the-public Lit Walk held at multiple venues around the village of Eastsound. The next day features the OILF Kids' Fest, a free event on Saturday morning at the Orcas Island Library starring Haitian-born storyteller Ibi Zoboi, whose 2017 book American Street was a National Book Award finalist.

Comedy Shows at Madrone Cellars

We are bringing back stand-up comedy for the third year in a row! We love offering locals and visitors alike a break from the chaos. This year we have not 1, but 5 shows to choose from! Book ahead of time, or show up day of! Seating is always first come first serve. We suggest coming early for a glass of wine and sharing one of our new menu items!
June 24th | July 28th & 29th | August 12th | September 9th

Visit Madrone Cellars' EventBrite page for tickets and details!

Karan Casey at the San Juan Community Theatre

Legendary Irish folk singer Karan Casey has released 11 albums to date. She has toured extensively throughout North America, Europe, and Japan, singing songs charged with a sense of social responsibility in a career spanning over 25 years. Karan is joined by Niamh Dunne on fiddle and vocals, and guitarist and accordionist Sean Óg Graham. The songs draw inspiration from a wide range of sources from the personal to the historical and political, touching on themes of family, loss, love, the empowerment of women, and the Irish revolutionary struggle.
